

TO BRING RUSSIA INTO LEAGUE OF NATIONS, REPORT

Allies Paving Way of Re-opening Official Relations

HOLD LABOR MEETING

Expect Definite Results as Outcome of the Conference.

London, Feb. 25.—The allies are paving the way to re-establish official relations with the soviet government at Moscow to bring Russia into the league of nations, according to all indications today.

Definite results are expected to follow the investigation of an international labor mission in Russia. The labor bureau of the league of nations decided last week to send this mission into Russia, but the council of premiers now seek to have it sanctioned by the council of the league of nations and its scope enlarged. This couldn't of the league be done immediately as the council of the league is not in session. It may require six months or longer to work out a detailed allied plan, but the allies already have gone half way with their new Russian program and are practically guaranteeing soviet Russia against attacks from the outside.

Leading officials of Great Britain and France, it was pointed out today, are not in a position to recommend a recognition of the soviet government and the resumption of official relations. Premier Nitti of Italy, is not bound in this manner and it is understood that he has urged his colleagues in the council to grant such recognition to the Moscow government.

The Russian border states from the Baltic to the Black Sea are reported ready to negotiate peace with the soviet government. The allies will encourage this attitude, meanwhile trying to secure an exchange of goods from Russia. Not until the time arrives for the recognition of the soviet government will the allies seek repayment of Russian debts and other international guarantees. The main thing now is the reopening of commercial relations, it is stated.

The Russian decision was interpreted by the press as a victory for Premier Lloyd George and Premier Nitti over Premier Millerand, of France, who has been vigorously opposing official recognition of the soviet government. The Northcliffe press today attacked Premier Lloyd George for what it terms the premier's secession of England to the soviet.

BAINBRIDGE COLBY WILL SUCCEED ROBERT LANSING

Washington, Feb. 25.—President Wilson has selected Bainbridge Colby, of New York, as secretary of state to succeed Robert Lansing, it was officially announced at the White House today.

Colby has accepted the post and his name will be submitted to the senate today.

Colby has been a director of the emergency fleet corporation. He is a lawyer by profession.

The appointment of Colby to the highest position in President Wilson's cabinet was a complete surprise to official Washington. It was confidently expected that either acting Secretary of State Polk or Secretary Baker would get the post.

Colby's appointment is understood to be in the nature of a compromise.

ASQUITH STAGES "COMEBACK" IN POLITICAL RACE

Lloyd George Threatened With Stiff Opposition

IRELAND ON PLATFORM

Will Assume Leadership to Government Opposition.

London, Feb. 25.—Former Premier Herbert H. Asquith has been elected to the house of commons from the Paisley parliamentary district, it was officially announced today.

The spectacular political "comeback" of the former premier threatened Premier Lloyd George with one of the greatest parliamentary battles of his career. Mr. Asquith will assume the leadership of the opposition to the government when he takes his seat in commons.

The balloting in the Paisley bye-election took place on February 12, after a sensational campaign in which Mrs. Asquith and her daughter, Lady Bonham Carter, took a leading part. He was elected on the following platform for which he promised to work:

1. Immediate establishment of peace and the re-opening of commercial and industrial intercourse with Russia.
2. Immediate and drastic retrenchment of government finance, reform of taxation and the raising of the exemption under income tax.
3. Taxation on accumulated wealth and a levy on capital.
4. Full self government for Ireland.
5. Full extension of suffrage to women so that they may occupy absolute equality in politics and public life with men.
6. Free trade for Great Britain.
7. Minimum wage and minimum hours for labor and a "living voice" for labor in the conduct of industry.
8. Extension of powers to the government to combat profiteers and trusts.

Mr. Asquith is on record against the nationalization of industry, a declaration that alienated a large number of labor votes from him.

The ex-premier did not make liquor control one of the planks of his platform in some of his speeches he favored local option as a means of dealing with the question if it is to be tackled at all.

Akron, O., Feb. 25.—Plans for a big agricultural and industrial school on the 2,000 acre O. C. Barber model farm near here, to be run in connection with Western Reserve university, were revealed today in the filing of the will of the late match magnate. Bevan, wife of a prominent Chicago physician, $2,000 a year for President Charles F. Thwing of Western Reserve university, and some minor annuities, and leaves the balance of the estate to be used for the school.

The value of the estate is set at $5,000,000 of which $3,000,000 is in personal property and $2,000,000 in real estate. Encumbrances against the estate have not been determined.

GERMAN OFFICERS DIRECT ACTIONS OF THE SOVIETS

Bolshevik Forces Are Thrown Back Across River.

HUNGARY IS ALARMED

Want Allied Intervention In Case of Defeat.

London, Feb. 25.—Two of Germany's foremost army officers—General Von Gallwitz and General Von Boehm—are reported to be directing the Russian soviet army's offensive against Roumania, according to a Budapest dispatch to the Daily Express today.

(Both General Von Gallwitz and General Von Boehm are reported to be on the list of war criminals which the allies sent to Berlin. General Von Gallwitz commanded the northern German army group on the eastern front during the German offensive against Russia and General Von Boehm commanded the Germans in the violent battles that raged on the Chemin Des Dames front in France).

Severe fighting between Russians and Roumanian patrols is reported to be taking place in Bessarabia, along the Roumanian border. The Bolshevik forces that were moving south on the Dniester river line to invade Roumania from the north-east have been thrown back across the stream, the Budapest dispatch reported.

The Hungarians are becoming alarmed. They are asking the entente to put an army in the field if the Russians should crush the Roumanians.

Czecho-Slovakia and the Serbs have mobilized certain classes and are reinforcing their frontier guards to deal with a possible invasion by the soviet army.

The Roumanians are mobilizing 250,000 men and concentrating them in Bessarabia and Moldavia.

(Bessarabia is a Russian province that is claimed by Roumania. Moldavia is the northernmost province of Old Roumania).

Two divisions of Roumanian troops that were holding the Theis river line in Hungary were withdrawn into Bessarabia, but were afterwards returned to Hungary. However, another slow withdrawal of Roumanians from Hungary is under way, it is reported.

As the Roumanians are falling back they are destroying railway and bridges. The railway and bridges along the Russo-Moldavian frontier are likewise being destroyed to hamper any forward movement by the Russians.

General Gaddis, of the old Russian imperial army, is said to be chief of operations of the Russian southwestern front, with General Von Gallwitz and General Von Boehm as his right hand aides.

CO-OPERATION IS URGED BETWEEN HOME & SCHOOLS

Co-operation between the home and the schools was urged by Dr. Ben R. McClellan in an address which was given at the community meeting held under the auspices of the Spring Hill Mothers' Circle, at the Spring Hill school Tuesday night.

Dr. McClellan also spoke of the new movements along school lines, emphasizing the necessity of physical education and medical inspection in the schools, and commending the examinations which are given by the Red Cross nurses. He paid a compliment to superintendent Waltz for his progressiveness and talked favorably regarding the new high schools.

Superintendent of Schools and Mrs. C. A. Waltz were presented to the gathering, that being the first time they have attended a public gathering in the Spring Hill community. Supt. Waltz boosted the new high school, in a short talk.

A program of old songs was sung by the gathering. The Spring Hill orchestra played and readings were given by Mrs. Stearns and Mrs. Snyder. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program. About 150 people attended the affair.

LADY ASTOR IN PUBLIC PRESS

London, Feb. 25.—The people in the future will be less interested in what Viscountess Astor wears than what she says, said the Manchester Guardian today in commenting upon Viscountess Astor's maiden speech in the house of commons last night when she defended liquor control in England. The general tone of the press and parliamentary comment was that the Viscountess had made a triumphant entry into commons.

PROHIBITION AGENTS BEGIN CAMPAIGN TO SMASH SYSTEM OF BOOTLEGGING AND MOONSHINE MAKING IN MICHIGAN

Iron River, Mich., Feb. 25.—Major A. V. Dalrymple and his 25 federal prohibition agents, reinforced by 25 men of the Michigan state constabulary, today began a campaign to smash the system of bootlegging and moonshine making in which numerous residents of Iron county have attempted to defy the government.

Armed with automatic firearms and without warrants, which were denied by U. S. Commissioner Hatch on the advice of federal district attorney Walker of Grand Rapids, Major Dalrymple's men planned as their first step to search all of the 1200 houses in Iron River for contraband booze.

Coincident with this search, Major Dalrymple, disregarding a threat that he would be arrested on a libel charge, planned to arrest prosecuting attorney Martin McDonough, chief of police Sinsaba, Captain of Police Claude Brown, five deputy sheriffs and three Scioceci brothers whose alleged illicit liquor started the "Michigan rum revolt." All of the arrests probably will be made on charges of conspiracy. The first raid of the "revenuers" was scheduled to be made on the packing company run

ENTERTAINS GIRLS AT WASHINGTON PARTY

Washington's birthday suggestions featured the evening party at which Miss Reva Walker was hostess at her home on North Detroit street, Tuesday evening. Flags were draped about the rooms, and miniature hatchets completed the effect. After enjoying a patriotic contest, the guests were asked to the dining room, where the table was attractively decorated for supper. A miniature cherry tree, made popular by the story of Washington's childhood, centered the table, and at each cover there were flag baskets for the red candies. The guests found their places by hatchet shaped place cards. There were covers for the Misses Bertha Mider, Elsie Wilson, Helen Dillingham, Isabel Clark, Marie and Lucia Jenner, Beatie Seaff, Mrs. Grover Crawford, Mrs. Ernest E. Pries, Mrs. Frank Walker and the hostess.

FOUNDERS DAY OBSERVED BY WILBERFORCE IN CONJUNCTION WITH FREEDOM FROM DEBT RALLY

With an elaborate program which will end with a Grand Rally, Wilberforce University celebrated Founder's Day at Galloway Auditorium of the university, Wednesday.

In conjunction the University is celebrating its freedom from debt, through funds raised by the African Methodist Episcopal church, which maintains the institution, and is rallying for a drive for five millions of dollars to be raised to carry on the work of the church for missions and education work among the darker races of the world.

It is estimated that at least $40,000 which is more than enough to free the university from the debt which has been hanging over it, will be reported by the Bishops who are heading the campaign in the various sections. So far, the reports are all in, except that of Bishop Tyree, from Bishop Jones' special field. Known as the Third Episcopal District, $25,000 was raised; Bishop Crippin reported $8,000 from his district, while Bishop Smith's district contributed $3,000, making a total of $36,000. Bishop Tyree's report is expected to carry the fund over the $40,000 mark.

The financial drive was organized last summer by the three Bishops whose work composes the first educational district of the African M. E. church. In the episcopal work Bishop Tyree holds the eastern section of the district, Bishop Choppin the western, and Bishop Jones the central.

Measures looking to the launching of the plan to raise five millions for educational and mission work, will be presented at the next general conference of the church to be held in St. Louis, next May. Bishop Jones of this district, and Rev. William Sampson Brooks, who has just raised $100,000 for local church work, will be looked upon as leaders in any such movement.

Founder's Day is annually celebrated, but never with more import than Wednesday. The program included addresses by Rev. J. C. Brewer, of Covington, Ky.; Rev. R. B. Smith, of Orange, N. J.; Rev. Joseph Gomez, of Detroit, Mich.; Rev. H. P. Jones, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; and Rev. E. A. Clark, of Columbus, O. President W. S. Scarborough, of the university, presided over the program.

NO HOPE HELD FOR REVIVAL OF JOHN BARLEYCORN IN PARTIES DURING COMING CONVENTIONS

Washington, Feb. 25.—Those who still hang onto the hope that at one convention or the other John Barleycorn will be given one more chance for his life, might just as well begin casting about for another straw to cling to. No such hope is held out here.

The carefully noted attitude of officials at party headquarters, coupled with a somewhat exhaustive inquiry among party leaders and party followers here, reveals absolutely nothing resembling a serious intention on the part of either Republicans or Democrats of broaching the subject of booze at Chicago or San Francisco.

The "rum rebellion" in Michigan and the oft-mentioned reaction reported to exist throughout the country against the great droughts, some politicians believed, would lead to a "wet plank" in one, or both the party platforms.

A study of the question here failed to show that the alleged demand for drink had caused even a ripple at either of the national party headquarters.

The attitude of the old parties seems to be that the subject is loaded with a combination of dynamite and asphyxiating gas, and few politicians here will willingly discuss it without first "shushing" and locking the door.

The Republican convention in New York state is cited here by the politically wise as having furnished a sample of what may be expected by both national conventions next June. It is pointed out that prohibition was neither endorsed there, condemned nor straddled; it was ignored.

Senator James W. Wadsworth Jr., reputed friend of the "wet" was quietly old as republican candidate to succeed himself in the upper house and as a delegate to the Chicago convention, but even those who are watching the moves here observe, was done with impeccable discretion.

EX-PREMIER DENIES HAVING PLOTTED A DISHONORABLE PEACE WITH ITALIAN PACIFIST PARTY

Paris, Feb. 25.—Former Premier Joseph Caillaux, on trial charged with having treasonable dealings with the enemy during the war, denied today that he had plotted a premature and dishonorable peace with the Italian pacifists during a visit to Italy.

The accused statesman was questioned at length by Leon Bourgeois, president of the high court of justice, regarding his Italian sojourn. These interrogations brought out important admissions from M. Caillaux regarding his pacifist policy which brought him into disrepute in the closing days of the war.

M. Caillaux readily admitted that he had conversation with members of pacifist elements of the Italian government circles, but insisted that these conversations had for their object "not peace at any price, but an honorable peace."

"Were you not aware that such declarations, in view of the perilous situation in the Italian armies, were likely to be disastrous to the entente?" asked President Bourgeois.

M. Caillaux explained: "I desired to sound the Italians in their disposition toward peace. Knowing the perilous situation desired to end the useless bloodshed."

A number of documents were secured by the French government from the vault of a Florence bank which are to be introduced in trial by the prosecution.

Mme. Caillaux was a particularly interested observer of the proceedings today, as she is accused of acting as intermediary between her husband and the Italian pacifists. She leaned forward in her seat and listened attentively while her husband was being questioned about contents of the safe deposit box at Florence which had been rented in her name. The defendant explained this by saying that the receptacle was only for his wife's use and was not to be used for propaganda documents.

In spite of the strain of the trial and his long impairment the defendant shows no weariness. He causes frequent ripples of laughter by employing slang terms in answering the questions of the court. He had to explain some of his expressions.

TROOPS GUARD SCENE OF TRIAL OF THE I. W. W.'S

Montesano, Wash., Feb. 25.—Government troops are to preserve order during the remainder of the Centralia murder trials. Orders for the movement of troops are in the hands of General Morrison, commander of Camp Lewis, and a detachment of United States infantry will be dispatched at once, according to word received here by Herman Allen, prosecuting attorney for Lewis county, from Governor Hart today.

Explaining the expected arrival of troops Allen said that Montesano is the scene of an increasing number of I. W. W. and other radicals and that rumors and threats coming to his ears had prompted him to request Governor Hart for troops to preserve order. Allen said he did not know the number of troops to be sent but that he had asked for a company.

Hopes of an early resumption of the trial are being seriously discouraged by the influenza epidemic.

Edward Parr, the first of the jurors to become afflicted with the disease, was reported to be worse today. Besides Parr three other jurors have been taken ill and several other talesmen are feeling ill.

Because of the seriousness of the situation, Miss Ruth M. Upton, county nurse, was sworn in as a bailiff and assumed her duties with the sick jurors.

Quarantine signs have been placed at the entrance of the city hall leading to the jurors room.

JAPANESE CUSTOMS DESCRIBED IN TALK AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Japanese customs and mode of living, and the missionary work which is being accomplished in Japan, were the subjects of a talk which was delivered at the First Baptist Church Wednesday night, by Mrs. Henry R. Topping, a Baptist missionary, who has spent 25 years in the land of the Mikado.

Mrs. Topping introduced her address by saying that she was happy to be in Xenia, because she had here two great surprises, the meeting of Horace Ankeney, the father of the Rev. Alfred H. Ankeney, a missionary in Japan, who has frequently been in the home of the Toppings in Marioka, and the singing of two songs, "Roses Everywhere" and "The Little Gray Home in the West," which was sung for her husband and herself just before they left Japan.

Eight of the 25 years she has been in Japan, Mrs. Topping said, her family spent in Tokio. Owing to a crisis in evangelistic work in the north, they were commissioned to serve in Marioka, and were the only Anglo-Saxons there during a long term of service. She gave a vivid description of Marioka in its geographical, educational, political and commercial aspects. She described some of the noted men of that city, such as the present premier, the representative of the League of Nations, the Moody of Japan, and other well known leaders.

Mrs. Topping established a kindergarten in Marioka, and she spoke of the influence this had not only on the children, but also upon the native teachers who came from afar to study the methods and weigh the results.

Before Mrs. Topping gave her address, two duets were sung by Mrs. Mary Meredith and Mrs. Arthur Perrell.

MAIN CONTENTION OF NEWBERRY TRIAL BROUGHT FORTH

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 25.—An attempt of the government to establish its main contention in the vote fraud and conspiracy trial of Senator Newberry and his 122 co-defendants—namely, that the $176,000 report filed by the campaign committee is a true statement of expenditures is a falsified document—is expected to be made today.

This was forecast by the placing on the stand of Claire Higbie, clerk of the grand jury, who recounted testimony given before that body by William Mickel, who aided James W. Helme in the Democratic primary race against Henry Ford at the solicitation of the Newberry managers. Mickel declared that the Newberry managers finally decided to put in the $176,000 statement, fearing that to report the correct figures would mean Newberry's defeat. He also, according to Higbie, declared that the Newberry committee paid Helme $50 a week to run against Ford. Grand jury statements of fifty more defendants remain to be introduced in the record.

ENTERTAINS GIRLS AT WASHINGTON PARTY

Washington's birthday suggestions featured the evening party at which Miss Reva Walker was hostess at her home on North Detroit street, Tuesday evening. Flags were draped about the rooms, and miniature hatchets completed the effect. After enjoying a patriotic contest, the guests were asked to the dining room, where the table was attractively decorated for supper. A miniature cherry tree, made popular by the story of Washington's childhood, centered the table, and at each cover there were flag baskets for the red candies. The guests found their places by hatchet-shaped place cards. There were covers for the Misses Bertha Mider, Elsie Wilson, Helen Dillingham, Isabel Clark, Marie and Lucia Jenner, Beatie Scarff, Mrs. Grover Crawford, Mrs. Ernest E. Fries, Mrs. Frank Walker and the hostess.

FOUNDERS DAY OBSERVED BY WILBERFORCE IN CONJUNCTION WITH FREEDOM FROM DEBT RALLY

With an elaborate program which will end with a Grand Rally, Wilberforce University celebrated Founder's Day at Galloway Auditorium of the university, Wednesday.

In conjunction the University is celebrating its freedom from debt, through funds raised by the African Methodist Episcopal church, which maintains the institution, and is rallying for a drive for five millions of dollars to be raised to carry on the work of the church for missions and education work among the darker races of the world.

It is estimated that at least $40,000 which is more than enough to free the university from the debt which has been hanging over it, will be reported by the Bishops who are heading the campaign in the various sections. So far, the reports are all in, except that of Bishop Tyree, from Bishop Jones' special field, known as the Third Episcopal District, $25,000 was raised; Bishop Coppin reported $8,000 from his district, while Bishop Smith's district contributed $3,000, making a total of $36,000. Bishop Tyree's report is expected to carry the fund over the $40,000 mark.

NO HOPE HELD FOR REVIVAL OF JOHN BARLEYCORN IN PARTIES DURING COMING CONVENTIONS

Washington, Feb. 25.—Those who still hang onto the hope that at one convention or the other John Barleycorn will be given one more chance for his life, might just as well begin casting about for another straw to cling to. No such hope is held out here.

The carefully noted attitude of officials at party headquarters, coupled with a somewhat exhaustive inquiry among party leaders and party followers here, reveals absolutely nothing resembling a serious intention on the part of either Republicans or Democrats of broaching the subject of booze at Chicago or San Francisco.

The "rum rebellion" in Michigan and the oft-mentioned reaction reported to exist throughout the country against the great droughts, some politicians believed, would lead to a "wet plank" in one, or both the party platforms. A study of the question here failed to show that the alleged demand for the financial drive was organized last summer by the three Bishops whose work comprises the first educational district of the African M. E. church. In the Episcopal work Bishop Tyree holds the eastern section of the district, Bishop Choppin the western, and Bishop Jones the central.

Measures looking to the launching of the plan to raise five millions for educational and mission work, will be presented at the next general conference of the church to be held in St. Louis, next May. Bishop Jones of this district, and Rev. William Sampson Brooks, who has just raised $100,000 for local church work, will be looked upon as leaders in any such movement.

Founder's Day is annually celebrated, but never with more importance than Wednesday. The program included addresses by Rev. J. C. Brewer, of Covington, Ky.; Rev. R. B. Smith, of Orange, N. J.; Rev. Joseph Gomez, of Detroit, Mich.; Rev. H. P. Jones, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; and Rev. E. A. Clark, of Columbus, O. President W. S. Scarborough, of the university, presided over the program.

drink had caused even a ripple at either of the national party headquarters. The attitude of the old parties seems to be that the subject is loaded with a combination of dynamite and asphyxiating gas, and few politicians here will willingly discuss it without first "shushing" and locking the door. The Republican convention in New York state is cited here by the politically wise as having furnished a sample of what may be expected by both national conventions next June. It is pointed out that prohibition was neither endorsed there, condemned nor straddled; it was ignored. Senator James W. Wadsworth Jr., reputed friend of the "wet" was quietly ok'd as republican candidate to succeed himself in the upper house and as a delegate to the Chicago convention, but even those who are watching the moves here observe, was done with impeccable discretion.

EX-PREMIER DENIES HAVING PLOTTED A DISHONORABLE PEACE WITH ITALIAN PACIFIST PARTY

Paris, Feb. 25.—Former Premier Joseph Caillaux, on trial charged with having treasonable dealings with the enemy during the war, denied today that he had plotted a premature and dishonorable peace with the Italian pacifists during a visit to Italy.

The accused statesman was questioned at length by Leon Bourgeois, president of the high court of justice, regarding his Italian sojourn. These interrogations brought out important admissions from M. Caillaux regarding his pacifist policy which brought him into disrepute in the closing days of the war.

M. Caillaux readily admitted that he had conversations with members of pacifist elements of the Italian government circles, but insisted that these conversations had for their object "not peace at any price, but an honorable peace."

"Were you not aware that such declarations, in view of the perilous situation in the Italian armies, were likely to be disastrous to the enterprise?" asked President Bourgeois.

M. Caillaux explained: "I desired to sound the Italians in their disposition toward peace. Knowing the perilous situation I desired to end the useless bloodshed."

A number of documents were secured by the French government from the vault of a Florence bank which are to be introduced in trial by the prosecution.

Mme. Caillaux was a particularly interested observer of the proceedings today, as she is accused of acting as intermediary between her husband and the Italian pacifists. She leaned forward in her seat and listened intently while her husband was being questioned about contents of the safe deposit box at Florence which had been rented in her name. The defendant explained this by saying that the receptacle was only for his wife's use and was not to be used for propaganda documents.

In spite of the strain of the trial and his long impairment the defendant shows no weariness. He causes frequent ripples of laughter by employing slang terms in answering the questions of the court. He had to explain some of his expressions.

sent but that he had asked for a company.

Hopes of an early resumption of the trial are being seriously discouraged by the influenza spectre.

Edward Parr, the first of the jurors to become afflicted with the disease, was reported to be worse today. Besides Parr three other jurors have been taken ill and several other talemans are feeling ill.

Because of the seriousness of the situation, Miss Ruth M. Upton, county nurse, was sworn in as a bailiff and assumed her duties with the sick jurors.

Quarantine signs have been placed at the entrance of the city hall leading to the jurors room.

JAPANESE CUSTOMS DESCRIBED IN TALK AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Japanese customs and mode of living, and the missionary work which is being accomplished in Japan, were the subjects of a talk which was delivered at the First Baptist church Wednesday night, by Mrs. Henry R. Topping, a Baptist missionary, who has spent 25 years in the land of the Mikado.

Mrs. Topping introduced her address by saying that she was happy to be in Xenia, because she had here two great surprises, the meeting of Horace Ankeney, the father of Rev. Alfred H. Ankeney, a missionary in Japan, who has frequently been in the home of the Toppings in Marioka, and the singing of two songs "Roses Everywhere," and "The Little Gray Home in the West," which was sung for her husband and herself just before they left Japan.

Eight of the 25 years they have been in Japan, Mrs. Topping said, her family spent in Tokio. Owing to a crisis in evangelistic work in the north, they were commissioned to serve in Marioka, and were the only Anglo-Saxons there during a long term of service. She gave a vivid description of Marioka in its geographical, educational, political and commercial aspects. She described some of the noted men of that city, such as the present premier, the representative of the League of Nations, the Moody of Japan, and other well known leaders. Mrs. Topping established a kindergarten in Marioka, and she spoke of the influence this had not only on the children, but also upon the native teachers who came from afar to study the methods and weigh the results.

Before Mrs. Topping gave her address, two duets were sung by Mrs. Mary Meredith and Mrs. Arthur Perrell.

FORMER XENIAN GETS NEW PRESS IN MINNESOTA

The Faribault News, of Faribault, Minn., owned and published by Howard Bratton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bratton of this city and formerly a newspaper man in Xenia, Springfield and Dayton, is being printed now on a new Duplex press, the first web press ever operated in Rice county.

In announcing the placing of the new press in operation, the management in a recent issue of the News, says:

"The Daily News feels that it has entered a new and more important stage of existence. It has since last fall gone into its own building, especially constructed for the use of a daily newspaper; it has added nearly 50 per cent to its subscription list, and it has installed a press which lifts the paper to a place into the class held by the daily papers in other cities of Faribault's size.

Improvements and additions to the news service are being made and which are being planned will give the readers a far more valuable paper than ever before.

FAIRY TALES OF GENERATION AGO STILL POPULAR

"Once upon a time," there was a little boy and a little girl who did not like Grimm's Fairy Tales. But even they learned to enjoy this popular children's book and when they grew up they married and "lived happily ever after."

Where is the grown person now, who cannot recall when he sat until late at night—maybe half past eight—and poured over a volume of this most popular of child's literature—Grimm's Fairy Tales. And then, having closed the volume, with a feeling of awe and of fright, to have stolen off to bed, seeing moving shadows in every corner, and ghosts in every room.

And then tucked away under the covers, to have wrapped up his head, and shuddered in sheer, if frightened delight. In the words of Clara Briggs, the artist, "them was the good old days." Then "Alice in Wonderland," that immortal classic of children's literature, seemed to be more popular with the little girls who thumbed the pages of the family copy until its passages were known almost by heart.

And still, with the hundreds of volumes of more modern child's literature turned out in recent years, Grimm's Fairy Tales, long may they wave, and good old "Alice in Wonderland," still hold their own in popularity and still occupy first place in the minds and hearts of little tots.

It seems strange in the hurly-burly world that echoes from the past such as these, should still retain their

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. They act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood, and purifying the entire system. They do that which calomel does, without any of the bad after effects. Take one or two every night for a week and note the pleasing effect. 10c and 25c a box.

popularity with the youth of the world. For the young people have changed, and the world has changed, but fortunately for Grimms and little Alice, standards of children's literature have not changed with it.

Miss Etta C. McElwain, librarian at the Greene County Library, will testify to the popularity of these old books. They are still in hearty demand, says she, and the demand predicts a long popularity in the future.

In fact, so busy are the copies of these books, that not only two, but six copies of these child classics, have to be kept so constant is the demand.

There are perhaps a lot of people who thought the world was traveling too fast, nowadays to ponder with the wild adventures of Grimm's characters and the wonderful Alice, and they probably thought they were dreaming in a forgotten age, when they recalled those old volumes.

And these grown-ups, may get a lot of satisfaction out of the knowledge that the books which amused them in their adolescence are thriving on the popularity of a new generation with just as much success.

So says a friend of ours named Velvet Joe. And he just about hits the nail on the head.

Velvet is made for men who think there's no smoke like real tobacco. If you are that sort of man, listen:

Velvet was born in old Kentucky, where more than one good thing comes from. It was raised as carefully as any other Kentucky thoroughbred. But the real secret of Velvet's friendly qualities is its slow natural ageing in wooden hogsheads. Ageing in the wood never hurt anything—and least of all, tobacco.

And so we say, Velvet is good tobacco—nothing more or less. It runs second to none.

The picture of the pipe on the tin needn't keep you from rolling a jim-dandy cigarette with Velvet.

FORMER XENIAN GETS NEW PRESS IN MINNESOTA

The Faribault News, of Faribault, Minn., owned and published by Howard Bratton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bratton of this city, and formerly a newspaper man in Xenia, Springfield and Dayton, is being printed now on a new Duplex press, the first web press ever operated in Rice county.

In announcing the placing of the new press in operation, the management in a recent issue of the News, says:

"The Daily News feels that it has entered a new and more important stage of existence. It has since last fall gone into its own building, especially constructed for the use of a daily newspaper; it has added nearly 50 per cent to its subscription list, and it has installed a press which lifts the paper to a place into the class held by the daily papers in other cities of Faribault's size.

Improvements and additions to the news service are being made and which are being planned will give the readers a far more valuable paper than ever before.

FAIRY TALES OF GENERATION AGO STILL POPULAR

"Once upon a time," there was a little boy and a little girl who did not like Grimm's Fairy Tales. But even they learned to enjoy this popular children's book and when they grew up they married and "lived happily ever after."

Where is the grown person now, who cannot recall when he sat until late at night—maybe half past eight—and poured over a volume of this most popular of children's literature—Grimm's Fairy Tales. And then, having closed the volume, with a feeling of awe and of fright, to have stolen off to bed, seeing moving shadows in every corner, and ghosts in every room.

And then tucked away under the covers, to have wrapped up his head, and shuddered in sheer, if frightened delight. In the words of Clara Briggs, the artist, "them was the good old days." It seems strange in the hurly-burly world that echoes from the past such as these, should still retain their popularity with the youth of the world. For the young people have changed, and the world has changed, but fortunately for Grimms and little Alice, standards of children's literature have not changed with it.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Word has been received by Mr. James Courser of the death of his brother in Mechanicsburg. The preliminary steps of the organization of a Board of Trade were taken at a meeting of business men held last night. Hon. John Little was selected chairman and S. B. LeSourd, secretary of the meeting. The nominating committee was selected as follows: Messrs. F. D. Alexander, F. D. Torrence, H. W. Owens, F. B. Drees and F. E. McGervey. After the Martin murder trial yesterday, when Martin was freed, a reception was held at the Grand hotel. The R. of V. Band was out and played several selections and Mr. Martin and Major Blackburn and Melville Hayes addressed the crowd which gathered.

an expression of anxiety on his face. "Ma," he asked, "if a poor little boy was to come to the back door and ask for something to eat, would you give him that piece of appetizer that was left over from dinner?" "Yes, Willie, of course, I would," said the mother, gently. Willie's face cleared. "All right," he said, "just wait a minute till I run round to the back door."

A certain captain in the army was summoned to answer a charge of assault preferred against him by a sentry. The officer had no recollection of it. The sentry declared the officer was intoxicated.

Among those questioned was an Irishman, who protested vigorously that the allegation of the sentry was a slander—that he was sure the captain was perfectly sober.

"Why are you so sure that Captain Blank was sober that evening?" he was asked. "Did he speak to you upon his return to his quarters?"

"He did, sir."

"What did he say?"

"He told me to be sure and call him early in the morning, sir."

"And did the captain say why he wished to be called early?"

"Yes, sir, he did, sir," he said. He was going to be Queen of the May, sir," responded the orderly with convincing gravity.

"Well, why don't you say something?" asked the angry woman after her long harangue.

"My dear," replied her husband, meekly, "nothing remains to be said."

READING OF BOOKS AND MAGAZINES ON INCREASE LOCALLY

Reading generally, is on the increase, according to Miss McElwain, librarian of Xenia, the library here and branches throughout the county, have been doing a most successful work recently, and the institutions both here and out of Xenia are proving popular. There are five of these branch libraries, located at Spring Valley, Jamestown, Yellow Springs, Alpha, and the Ross Township centralized school, and the demand for reading matter in those towns has greatly increased it is said. At Spring Valley the branch library is located in the new Community Center, where it has an ideal location, and is proving very popular.

The reading requirements in the public schools is one cause of the increase in popularity of the libraries, according to the librarian. In the public schools of Xenia, the students are required to read ten books a year from the third grade up. The lists are selected by the teachers, who give an option of ten of any twenty or so volumes. Research work on school subjects and for the purpose of securing information of school debates, have also caused considerable use of the libraries, and teachers from the county schools are taking out the books in quantities for class work and study, while many of the out of town pupils come to Xenia to use the library here.

Miss McElwain has noticed that much of the reading being done now, is by returned soldiers—many of them men who did not patronize the libraries very much before they went into the army. Yet these same men are now taking advantage of the business, industrial and professional literature of the institution. Perhaps they learned to use a library in the Y. M. C. A., K. of C. and Red Cross huts in camps, and perhaps a desire born of the work they had to do in a particular branch of the service, has caused this increased reading. The magazine room is also a popular feature of the library, and students and others doing research work, are finding much help from the pages of the really good periodicals that are there for their use.

MOTORAIDS

Do not use gasoline for washing or cleaning. Use kerosene to cut the grease. Do not spill gasoline or let it drip when filling the tank. It is dangerous and wasteful. Do not expose gasoline to the air as it evaporates rapidly and is dangerous. Do not allow your engine to run when the car is standing still. Cars almost all have self starters and it is good for them to have use. Have the carburetor adjusted to use the leanest mixture possible as a lean mixture discourages carbon deposits.

See that the piston rods fit tight and that the cylinders hold compression well. Leakage of compression causes waste. Stop all gasoline

THE "FLU" IS LIKE WAR. AFTER YOU HAVE BEEN THROUGH THE FIGHT THE DAMAGE MUST BE REPAIRED

Many a life is saved, many a life prolonged by proper body building after the "flu" has run its course; for the "flu" affects almost everyone in a different manner.

With some the body itself is run down—a general weakness and tired feeling results. With others the nervous system is disorganized, or the blood needs purifying, and the system regulated. In many cases even the hair and scalp require prompt treatment to prevent unhealthy scalp and loss of hair.

Here we suggest the things suitable for your case—which will help you to recover fully from the ravages and damage of the "flu" and to have full health restored.

THE RAILROAD AND LABOR ALARMING IMBROGLIO.

There have been so many occasions within the last few years when it seemed as if the nation was facing a "crisis" more strenuous than usual, that the word seems over-worked. But the one crisis which now looms up, seems more portentous than usual.

For over two years the railroads of the United States have been under government control. The necessities of the war activities required the taking over of the transportation system of the country.

There has always been a large party in the country favoring government ownership of all the public utilities of the nation, but this brief experience with the railroads would seem to give a "black-eye" to this theory, for the expense has so tremendously over-run the income that the country is amazed at the deficit.

Now, on March 1st, the railroads are to be turned back to their owners. But in the meantime wages to the employees have advanced so greatly that we all know that the companies cannot pay such, but would be bankrupt almost at once.

So Congress has been laboring hard to form a measure to give the railroads relief, and on Monday passed a Railroad Bill which is now in the hands of President Wilson to sign or veto. He is expected to sign it, although Labor Chiefs will urge its veto, and there is talk of a "strike" if he does, the measure not being satisfactory to them.

The railroad men want the railroads kept under government control, because of the big wages they were able to draw, but the theory of this government has always been that individual management gives much more inspiration to individual initiative, one of the crowning glories of progressive Americanism.

We are on the brink of March 1st. How would you like to be President Wilson, with such tremendous possibilities as rest on whether he signs or vetoes this far-reaching railroad measure? May God give him wisdom to do the right thing.

How tremendous are the responsibilities of a Ruler of this great nation? It would seem as if life is too short for anyone to wish to be burdened with such great cares. Yet we find dozens of our citizens not only willing, but anxious to assume this appalling task.

There is much truth in what Buwer said about ambition, as follows: "Say what we will, we may be sure that Ambition is an error. Its wear and tear of heart are never recompensed. It steals away the freshness of life; it deadens our vivid and social enjoyments; it shuts our souls to our youth—and then we remember that we have made a Fever and Labor of our years."

THIS NONSENSE ABOUT FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

It is time to get rid of a lot of nonsense regarding this remarkable drop in the rate of foreign exchange. From a common-sense point of view, it is a very good thing—good for the United States and, though bitter medicine, good for Europe.

How does it help the United States? By diminishing the volume of exports thereby throwing more goods into the American market, and thus lowering prices.

The chief factor in keeping American prices so high has been the draining out of this country of so large a volume of commodities for the foreign market. When foreign money is worth so much less than American money, that makes prices so much higher abroad that the foreigners cannot afford to buy our goods. Thus they are eventually distributed here, and in accordance with the law of supply and demand becoming plentiful, they become cheaper. That benefits all consumers. Exporters may complain about it for awhile; but few of them will lose anything but the legitimate profit. Manufacturers need not lose anything. There is demand enough in this country to absorb about all the goods of almost every kind, that can be produced for years to come, and a little relaxing of prices will enormously stimulate this demand.

How does it help Europe? By forcing Europe to get down to work and speed up her production. That will enable her more nearly to take care of her own wants, and when she gets her industries properly re-established, to export larger quantities of goods to this country. Then she can start paying us what she owes us. She cannot pay us in gold, because she has none. She cannot pay us in paper, because we will not take her paper except at a rate, ruinous to her. The only way she can pay us is in goods. And the more goods she sends us, the less war debt she will be burdened with, and the quicker everybody will get back to a normal basis.

We will gain, too, by the payment of that debt. It will make us financially stronger. Moreover, we can use Europe's raw or half-manufactured materials to advantage in our own industries, and the additional importations will help reduce our living expenses little by little without necessarily hurting anybody.

One thing above all else in the maze of the political whirlpool that adapts itself readily to argument is the presidential aspirant's desire to impress on the country as a whole how much better fitted he is than his fellow climbers, but more important than opinions on national issues today is the degree of skill with which the tea cup is handled in the drawing room.

It would appear that Mrs. Pankhurst is losing a great opportunity, as with England's surplus of 1,000,000 women, recruiting ought to be booming.

Reports from local sources are to the effect that county roads are in imminent danger of being cut to pieces owing to the absence of necessary legislation, but we take comfort in the thought that next fall the legislature may do something about the matter.

Now that Hoover has split with Wilson, and threatens to cause a rupture during the party convention in June, we wonder what side Bryan will take or whether he will take sides with himself, at the last moment.

THE RAILROAD AND LABOR ALARMING IMBROGLIO.

There have been so many occasions within the last few years when it seemed as if the nation was facing a "crisis" more strenuous than usual, that the word seems over-worked. But the one crisis which now looms up, seems more portentous than usual.

For over two years the railroads of the United States have been under government control. The necessities of the war activities required the taking over of the transportation system of the country.

There has always been a large party in the country favoring government ownership of all the public utilities of the nation, but this brief experience with the railroads would seem to give a "black-eye" to this theory, for the expense has so tremendously over-run the income that the country is amazed at the deficit.

Now, on March 1st, the railroads are to be turned back to their owners. But in the meantime wages to the employees have advanced so greatly that we all know that the companies cannot pay such, but would be bankrupt almost at once.

So Congress has been laboring hard to form a measure to give the railroads relief, and on Monday passed a Railroad Bill which is now in the hands of President Wilson to sign or veto. He is expected to sign it, although Labor Chiefs will urge its veto, and there is talk of a "strike" if he does, the measure not being satisfactory to them.

The railroad men want the railroads kept under government control, because of the big wages they were able to draw, but the theory of this government has always been that individual management gives much more inspiration to individual initiative, one of the crowning glories of progressive Americanism.

We are on the brink of March 1st. How would you like to be President Wilson, with such tremendous possibilities as rest on whether he signs or vetoes this far-reaching railroad measure? May God give him wisdom to do the right thing.

How tremendous are the responsibilities of a Ruler of this great nation? It would seem as if life is too short for anyone to wish to be burdened with such great cares. Yet we find dozens of our citizens not only willing, but anxious to assume this appalling task.

There is much truth in what Buwer said about ambition, as follows: "Say what we will, we may be sure that Ambition is an error. Its wear and tear of heart are never recompensed. It steals away the freshness of life; it deadens our vivid and social enjoyments; it shuts our souls to our youth—and then we remember that we have made a Fever and Labor of our years."

THIS NONSENSE ABOUT FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

It is time to get rid of a lot of nonsense regarding this remarkable drop in the rate of foreign exchange. From a common-sense point of view, it is a very good thing—good for the United States and, though bitter medicine, good for Europe.

How does it help the United States? By diminishing the volume of exports thereby throwing more goods into the American market, and thus lowering prices.

The chief factor in keeping American prices so high has been the draining out of this country of so large a volume of commodities for the foreign market. When foreign money is worth so much less than American money, that makes prices so much higher abroad that the foreigners cannot afford to buy our goods. Thus they are eventually distributed here, and in accordance with the law of supply and demand becoming plentiful, they become cheaper. That benefits all consumers. Exporters may complain about it for awhile; but few of them will lose anything but the legitimate profit. Manufacturers need not lose anything. There is demand enough in this country to absorb about all the goods of almost every kind, that can be produced for years to come, and a little relaxing of prices will enormously stimulate this demand.

How does it help Europe? By forcing Europe to get down to work and speed up her production. That will enable her more nearly to take care of her own wants, and when she gets her industries properly re-established, to export larger quantities of goods to this country. Then she can start paying us what she owes us. She cannot pay us in gold, because she has none. She cannot pay us in paper, because we will not take her paper except at a rate, ruinous to her. The only way she can pay us is in goods. And the more goods she sends us, the less war debt she will be burdened with, and the quicker everybody will get back to a normal basis.

We will gain, too, by the payment of that debt. It will make us financially stronger. Moreover, we can use Europe's raw or half-manufactured materials to advantage in our own industries, and the additional importations will help reduce our living expenses little by little without necessarily hurting anybody.

One thing above all else in the maze of the political whirlpool that adapts itself readily to argument is the presidential aspirant's desire to impress on the country as a whole how much better fitted he is than his fellow climbers, but more important than opinions on national issues today is the degree of skill with which the tea cup is handled in the drawing room.

It would appear that Mrs. Pankhurst is losing a great opportunity, as with England's surplus of 1,000,000 women, recruiting ought to be booming.

Reports from local sources are to the effect that county roads are in imminent danger of being cut to pieces owing to the absence of necessary legislation, but we take comfort in the thought that next fall the legislature may do something about the matter.

Now that Hoover has split with Wilson, and threatens to cause a rupture during the party convention in June, we wonder what side Bryan will take or whether he will take sides with himself, at the last moment.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Word has been received by Mr. James Coursey of the death of his brother in Mechanicsburg.

The preliminary steps of the organization of a Board of Trade were taken at a meeting of business men held last night. Hon. John Little was selected chairman and S. B. LeSourd, secretary of the meeting. The nominating committee was selected as follows: Messrs. F. D. Alexander, F. D. Torrence, H. W. Owens, F. B. Drees and F. E. McGervey.

After the Martin murder trial yesterday, when Martin was freed, a reception was held at the Grand hotel. The R. of V. Band was out and played several selections and Mr. Martin and Major Blackburn and Melville Hayes addressed the crowd which gathered.

CHATTER

An expression of opinion on the part of "Ma," he asked, "if a poor little boy was to come to the back door and ask for something to eat, would you give him that piece of apple tart that was left over from dinner?" "Yes, Willie, of course, I would!" said the mother, gently. Willie's face cleared.

"All right," he said, "just wait a minute till I run round to the back door."

A certain captain in the army was summoned to answer a charge of assault preferred against him by a sentry. The officer had no recollection of it. The sentry declared the officer was intoxicated.

Among those questioned was an Irishman, who protested vigorously that the allegation of the sentry was a slander—that he was sure the captain was perfectly sober.

"Why are you so sure that Captain Blank was sober that evening?" he was asked. "Did he speak to you upon his return to his quarters?"

"He did, sir."

"What did he say?"

"He told me to be sure and call him early in the morning, sir."

"And did the captain say why he wished to be called early?"

"Yes, sir, he did, sir. He said he was going to be Queen of the May, sir," responded the orderly with convincing gravity.

"Well, why don't you say something?" asked the angry woman after her long harangue.

"My dear," replied her husband, meekly, "nothing remains to be said."

READING OF BOOKS AND MAGAZINES ON INCREASE LOCALLY

Reading generally, is on the increase, according to Miss McElwain, librarian of Xenia, the library here and branches throughout the county, have been doing a most successful work recently, and the institutions both here and out of Xenia are proving popular. There are five of these branches. Libraries located at Spring Valley, Jamestown, Yellow Springs, Alpha, and the Ross Township centralized school, and the demand for reading matter in those towns has greatly increased it is said. At Spring Valley the branch library is located in the new Community Center, where it has an ideal location, and is proving very popular.

The reading requirements in the public schools is one cause of the increase in popularity of the libraries, according to the librarian. In the public schools of Xenia, the students are required to read ten books a year from the third grade up. The lists are selected by the teachers, who give an option of ten of any twenty or so volumes. Research work on school subjects and for the purpose of securing information of school debates, have also caused considerable use of the libraries, and teachers from the county schools are taking out the books in quantities for class work and study, while many of the out of town pupils come to Xenia to use the library here.

Miss McElwain has noticed that much of the reading being done now, is by returned soldiers—many of them men who did not patronize the libraries very much before they went into the army. Yet these same men are now taking advantage of the business, industrial and professional literature of the institution. Perhaps they learned to use a library in the Y. M. C. A. K. of C. and Red Cross huts in camps, and perhaps a desire born of the work they had to do in a particular branch of the service, has caused this increased reading. The magazine room is also a popular feature of the library, and students and others doing research work, are finding much help from the pages of the really good periodicals that are there for their use.

MOTORAIDS

Do not use gasoline for washing or cleaning. Use kerosene to cut the grease. Do not spill gasoline or let it drip when filling the tank. It is dangerous and wasteful. Do not expose gasoline to the air as it evaporates rapidly and is dangerous. Do not allow your engine to run when the car is standing still. Cars almost all have self starters and it is good for them to have use. Have the carburetor adjusted to use the leanest mixture possible as a lean mixture discourages carbon deposits.

See that the piston rods fit tight and that the cylinders hold compression well. Leakage of compression causes waste. Stop all gasoline leakage. Form the habit of shutting off the gasoline at the tank or fuel pipe. See that all bearings run freely and are well lubricated. Friction consumes power and wastes gasoline.

HERE THEY ARE, GRANDFATHER'S GOLOSHES,
NEWEST THING IN FEMININE FOOTWEAR

Trio of pretty co-eds of Chicago University wearing goloshes like grandfather used to wear.

Those people who like to gaze upon a dainty, neatly clad silken ankle have been deprived of that pleasure this winter because of the new and universally popular fad for goloshes. Jack Frost has also been dealt a blow since all the fair maids have taken to wearing exact duplicates of grandfather's overshoes, popular some fifty years ago. The most fashionable method of wearing the ugly but practical things is to leave the clasps open so they flap and clank with a smart, careless air.

CLUB WOMEN OF
XENIA PATRONIZE
LOCAL LIBRARY

The use of books by club women of the city and county, has caused the county librarian, Miss Etta McElwain, Mrs. Winnifred Armstrong, to take particular pains to provide the books they need, and those in charge of the library here have popularized the institution by assisting the club women, with every kind of service. Lack of sufficient funds is crippling the progress of the library and hindering it in the amount of service to the community that it can do. Situated outside of the trend of traffic, those who are not interested in books, fail to realize the amount of demand there is on the institution, and the amount of service that it does render to this community. While the library is doing a great and indispensable work, its educational value far out-reaching its amusement feature, this work could be greatly increased were the resources of the institution greater, it is thought.

ASPIRIN SHOULD

The "Bayer Cross" means the genuine, world-famous Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over eighteen years. Handy tin boxes of 12 tablets, cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

GRAND RELIEF FROM CATARRH.

Mr. McClure says every one can get it just like he did. Three bottles of Dreco fixed him up fine.

Also took the ache out of his rheumatism and banished a severe case of constipation.

"I've found out from my own experience that it is foolish for people to be annoyed any longer by catarrh," said Mr. Charles F. McClure, of 2536 Mt. Pleasant Pike, Hamilton, O.

"I know what it is to hawk and spit and try to clear your nose, throat and head for a couple of hours every morning. I know what it is to have a constant dripping into my throat that keeps me constantly trying to clear it out. I also know what heavy breathing and unsound sleep catarrh causes, and the head noises too.

"But I also know after trying lots of remedies, what will go right to the seat of the trouble and overcome these annoying symptoms. Dreco will do it. Dreco did it for me, and it's foolish for people to suffer like this when this grand medicine is within the reach of everyone.

"Dreco also eased a bad case of aching rheumatic joints; got my bowels to acting regular every day, whereas, before I used to be severely constipated. This is great medicine and I strongly advise sufferers to give it a trial."

The only way to get rid of catarrh is through the blood. Dreco is taken up by the blood very quickly, carried to the weakened membranes and restores them to healthy condition. That's the secret of Dreco's power over catarrh.

All good druggists sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in this city by Sohn's Drug Store.

PRELIMINARY GAME IS HARD FOUGHT

In a preliminary to the boys' game with Central High, the Yellow Springs girls defeated the Robbins and Myers or Y. W. girls team of Springfield in a hard fought overtime contest.

The score at the end of the first half was 5 to 3 with Yellow Springs on the long end but in the second half their opponents came back strong and managed to tie things at 11 all when the final whistle blew.

In the overtime period Yellow Springs proved their superiority and after some hard contesting they counted a single basket from the field for the necessary points to win.

Miss Littleton starred for the high school team dropping in several pretty shots, while Miss Adams played a strong game at guard. The Springfield aggregation failed to bring out any individual stars but their entire team played well.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: First I want to tell you what a comfort it is to write you, for I feel that I have to tell my troubles to some one.

I am of an affectionate nature. I long for love from my husband, that is for him to put his arms around me and make a fuss over me once in a while. I think he loves me in his own way, but what a way—just to talk to me on the things that interest him. If he touches me it is in a rough way, just as a man would start a wrestling match with another man.

Even my child takes after him—just a rowdy, cold little bunch of touch-me-not, and I long to take her on my lap and love her.

When I was a girl at home my parents were good common-sensed people, but no love nor pet names of any kind were thought of, and so you see all my life I have been deprived of love. I crave it so that I feel I could do most anything if some one would only give me attention and make just a little fuss over me. Don't think I am mushy—just human, that's all.

My husband knows how I feel, for I have told him time and again. I make myself as attractive as possible.

Any suggestion you offer I will surely try and I will appreciate your interest in the affair.

JUST NEGLECTED.

Every human soul seems to crave something which is denied it. Your yearning reminds me of another woman. She was never caressed in her childhood. She has no recollection of her mother or father taking her upon their laps. She and her husband lived peacefully, but with no bond of affection; not once did he call her an endearing name. This little woman poured love to herself from other sources by "er symmetrical" service to those in need. She was thoughtful of elderly people, noticed and cared for suffering animals, read to the sick and insane, served when the call came. Now she is reaping her reward. Her husband is dead and her children are married. The children were not affectionate babies, but her gentleness and love brought them closer to her. She has earned what she craved so much.

Give to others what you have been denied and later your life will be full of love and affection. "Life is very generous in its return for what we put into it."

Dear Mrs. Thompson: An unprincipled woman, disappointed in love, made an appointment with the husband of her rival, on the pretext that she had something of importance to confide to him. Would a man with any sense of honor have met her under the circumstances, and if he did meet her, could the wife place any confidence in him afterward, provided his conduct before and after had been above reproach?

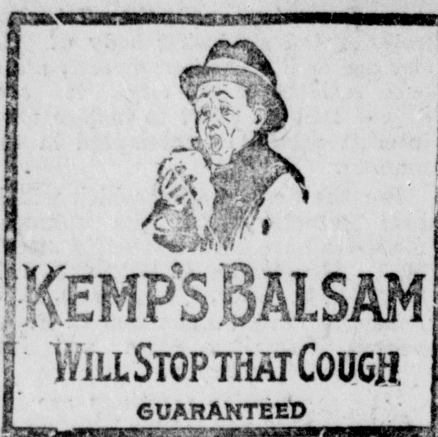

YOURS TRULY.
The man did nothing dishonorable. There are some calls which a gentleman must answer, and he felt that this was one of them. Because the girl misrepresented, was not his fault.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl eighteen years old and have been keeping company with a young man twenty-seven years old. I have kept company with him for three years. He wants me to get married to him and live with his folks and I know his mother doesn't like me. Please tell me what to do.
M. F.

Do not marry the young man until he is in a position to provide a home for you. You would not have a fair chance to be happy if you went into his mother's home.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Is it correct to eat supper with my friend when he comes up to supper? Or should I help wait on table?
MANY THANKS.

You should eat when your friend does.

Don Lanning, a perpetual motion mirth provoker, would have been enough by himself to keep the large audience at the opera house in an uproar Tuesday night, had there been no good cast and Dixie chorus in his support in the bright musical comedy "Pretty Baby."

Ada Langley, who played opposite the comedy star, was a clever little Miss while the chorus was unusually good. The Pretty Baby Four, consisting of Lanning, Joe Richardson, Ray Yearwood and Dick Perkins, were harmony makers, and they were repeatedly encored.

This Man Who Indorses Vola-Tonic Knew Cincinnati as a Village

When James Dryer, 425, Clinton street, Cincinnati, O., gave a statement about Vola-Tonic for publication recently the entire city of Cincinnati was interested.

Mr. Dryer, who is 93 years old, moved to Cincinnati in 1835 and knew that city as a village of about 2,000. He probably is one of the oldest residents of Cincinnati now living and everybody was interested in what he had to say about Vola-Tonic.

Stating that Vola-Tonic had made him feel years younger, Mr. Dryer went on to explain his case fully.

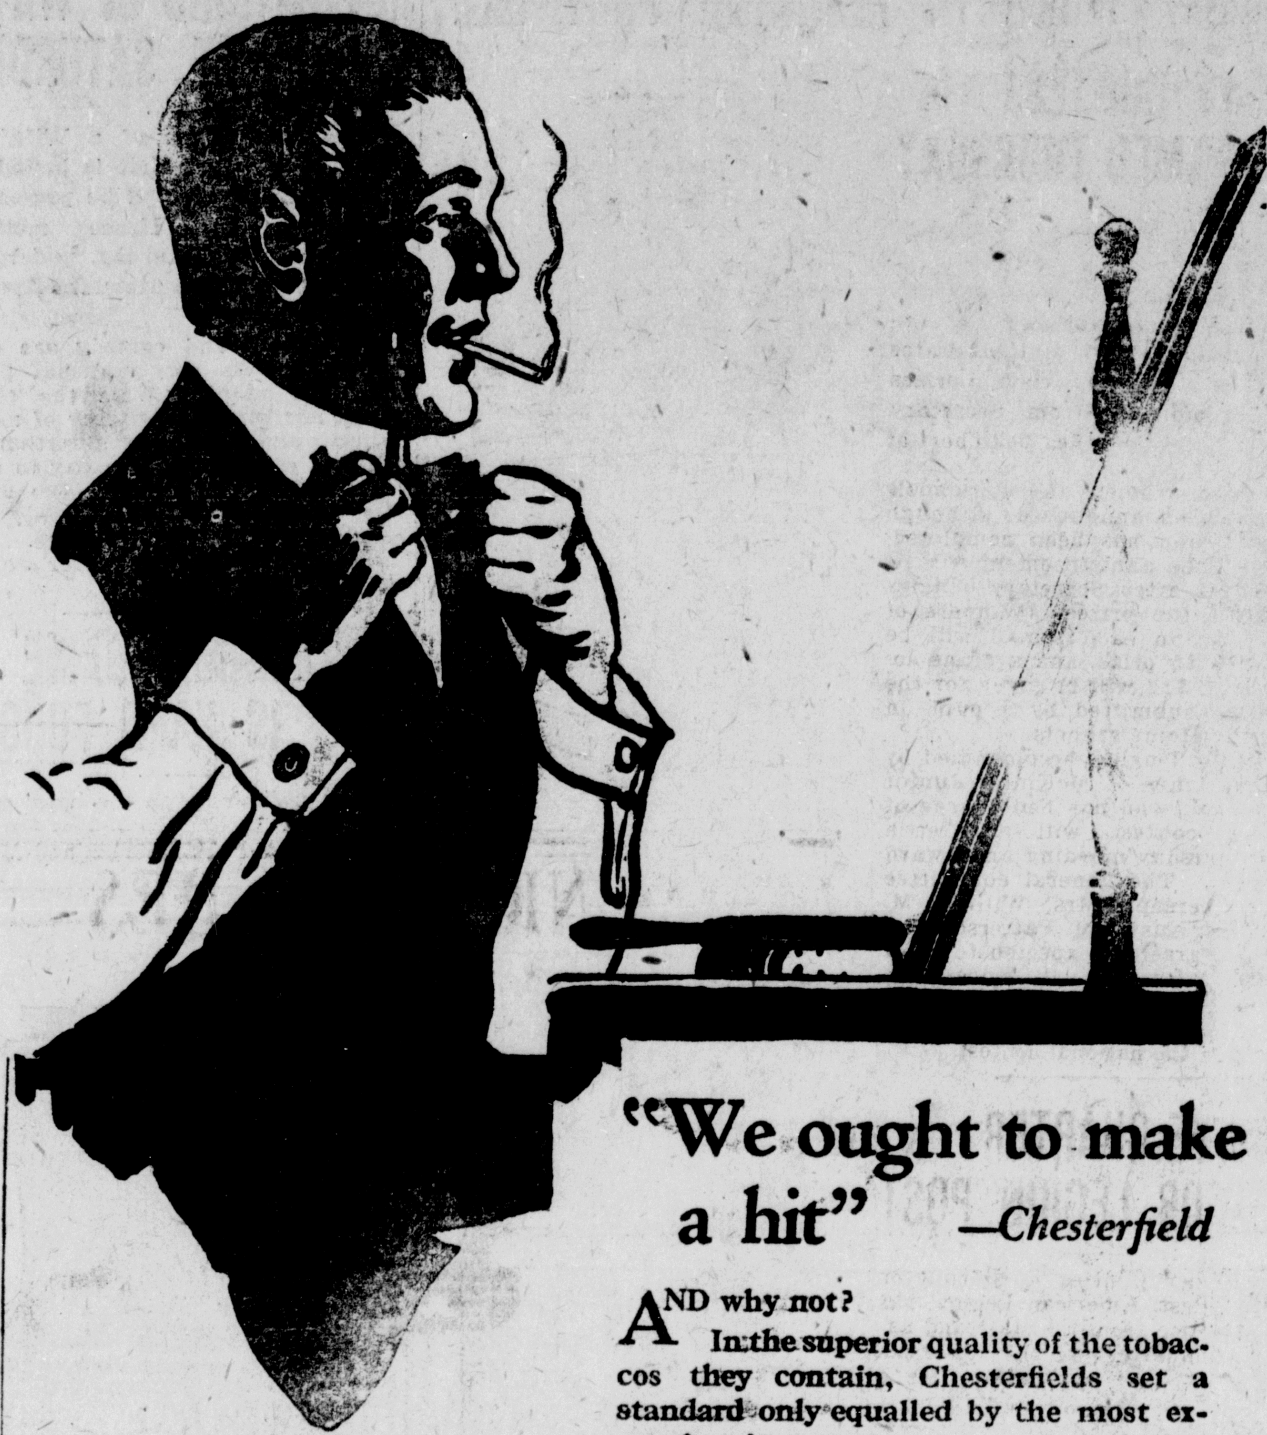

"Unfortunately I had influenza last winter and had not been strong since," Mr. Dryer said. "My vitality was low due to my age and the influenza further weakened me. I couldn't sleep well and was very nervous at times."

"Vola-Tonic has built up my system all over, and has made me feel years younger. I can walk two miles to the city library and back without any rest."

"I think Vola-Tonic is excellent for elderly people and for everybody else who needs more strength."

There's wisdom in the words of a 93-year-old man. Years before most of us were here, James Dryer was studying conditions and accumulating knowledge. You can have faith and confidence in what he says. And he says "Vola-Tonic is excellent for anybody needing more strength." If you are weak and run down get Vola-Tonic—TODAY!

"Vola-Tonic, 'Builder Of Strength,' is being specially introduced in Xenia at Sayre and Hemphill's, and in Dayton town by W. F. Harper."

ALLIES WILL GIVE FULL RECOGNITION TO THE SOVIETS

Paris, Feb. 25.—Early recognition of the Russian soviet government at Moscow by the allies was forecast in the press comment today upon the developments attending the sessions of the council of premiers in London. Little surprise was shown by the newspapers over the Russian decision announced by the premiers. Pertinax, political editor of the Echo De Paris, calls the decision "camouflage," saying it is the natural result of premier Lloyd George's policies. "It means the resumption of political relations with Russia as well commercial relations," declared Pertinax. "The London correspondent of the Journal quoted Premier Millerand as saying: 'The soviet government obtains no advantage from our note. We abandon none of our previous decisions. Perhaps this is not the best solution, but certainly it is not the worst.' (Note: M. Millerand evidently referred to the communique issued by the council of premiers in London announcing their new Russian policy.) The London correspondent of the Matin says the allies' concessions to France—the non-recognition of the soviet government—is 'only a concession in form.'"

M. degree upon a large class and the team work was highly commended by old and well informed Masons. A banquet was served for the occasion. The Wilberforce University choir sang to a large audience at 21st Baptist church Sunday afternoon. The choir was directed by Miss Collins and Mr. Hayes, pipe organist, accompanied it. The singing and playing was of a high order and it has produced favorable comment. The occasion was a rally in behalf of the university, promoted by the church's pastor, Rev. G. W. Becton, who is one of the university's most loyal supporters. $72.00 was raised in this effort, which will be reported on Pounder's day.

INFLUENZA AND WEAK BLOOD

Run Down and Listless Condition May Make You a Target For the 'Flu'

Because Blood is Probably Thin

AT THIS TIME OF DANGER, TAKE PEPTO-MANGAN—IT BUILDS RICH, RED BLOOD.

No matter how well you usually are, if temporarily you're run down, you're a target for the influenza. Contagion always gets listless people first. Whether they realize it or not, their blood is thin and undernourished—in no condition to fight off the germs it meets everywhere. It is a wise precaution to take a good tonic at this time of danger—some well known builder of red, vigorous blood, like Pepto-Mangan. And if you did not think of this in time—if you are now recovering from a fight with influenza—your blood will need help for weeks after you think the danger is past. Take no unnecessary chances. Get Pepto-Mangan and start taking it today. Pepto-Mangan is an effective blood builder that has had the endorsement of physicians for years. Pepto-Mangan is sold by druggists in either liquid or tablet form, just as preferred. There is no difference in medicinal value. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for Gude's Pepto-Mangan and be sure the name is on the package.—Adv.

ALLIES WILL GIVE FULL RECOGNITION TO THE SOVIETS

Paris, Feb. 25.—Early recognition of the Russian soviet government at Moscow by the allies was forecast in the press comment today upon the developments attending the sessions of the council of premiers in London. Little surprise was shown by the newspapers over the Russian decision announced by the premiers.
Pertinax, political editor of the Echo De Paris, calls the decision "camouflage," saying it is the natural result of premier Lloyd George's policies.
"It means the resumption of political relations with Russia as well as commercial relations," declared Pertinax.
"The London correspondent of the Journal quoted Premier Millerand as saying:
"The soviet government obtains no advantage from our note. We abandon none of our previous decisions. Perhaps this is not the best solution, but certainly it is not the worst."
(Note: M. Millerand evidently referred to the communique issued by the council of premiers in London announcing their new Russian policy).
The London correspondent of the Matin says the allies concessions to France—the non-recognition of the soviet government—is "only a concession in form."

IS FEELING LIKE OLD SELF AGAIN

Railroad Man Wasn't Exactly Sick But Felt Tired And Worn Out all the Time.

"I was in a badly run-down condition when I started taking Tanlac, but after taking only two bottles I am feeling like my old-time self again," said Albert F. Smith, 517 Elm street, Toledo, Ohio, a brakeman on the Toledo-Ohio Central Railroad, recently. Continuing Mr. Smith said:

"While I was not exactly sick, I was so badly run down for some time past that I just felt tired and worn out all the time and not like doing anything. My appetite was nothing like good as usual. I did not relish what I ate and it did not agree with me. I had no ambition and was sluggish and my work tired me so when I came in off my run on the road that I felt all fagged out and did not feel like going out of the house or doing anything but sitting down or going to bed.

"I had been reading so much in the newspapers about the good Tanlac was doing others that I decided to give it a trial, and it surely went right after my case in a hurry. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed I was getting back to my former good condition. Now my appetite has returned and I can eat anything I want and all I want without feeling any bad after effects. I am completely over that tired, worn-out feeling and come off the road after a hard day's work feeling just like I could still do another good day's work without stopping. I am gaining in weight so fast my clothes are getting too tight for me. I am going to take a few more bottles of Tanlac, just to be sure I don't have a return of my troubles. It is surely a grand medicine and I advise everybody who feels as I did to take it."

"Tanalac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill.

IN THE DOCTOR'S HANDS AFTER AN ATTACK OF "FLU"

But Mrs. Banfer Switched To Nerv-Worth and Quickly Found Relief

Every reader in whose system lie ailments which came in the wake of influenza should take careful notice of the following remarkable signed statement recently made at Uniontown's Nerv-Worth drug store. In the source and character Mrs. Banfer's report is a most comforting message to fellow sufferers:

Wade H. Guyton—I had a terrible case of the "flu" which left me in a very nervous and run-down condition. I was in the hands of a doctor but did not seem to respond to his treatment. I would feel sickness in my stomach after eating. My sleep was disturbed and I did not get rest or gain strength. I purchased a bottle of Nerv-Worth from you and took it as directed and can truthfully say that I am no longer nervous. No sickness after eating and I sleep soundly all night and have regained my health and strength. I recommend Nerv-Worth to all.

MRS. WM. BANFER Uniontown, Pa. Your dollar back at Sayre & Hemphill's, Xenia. If this famous family tonic does not benefit you, Nerv-Worth does more than merely to build up the system after a flu attack. It fortifies it against such attacks.

TEACHER SHORTAGE DRAWS ATTENTION OF CONVENTION

Cleveland, O., Feb. 25.—Attention of the 8,000 educators attending the national education association convention here was turned to the nation wide shortage today.

Wages must be made sufficient to hold competent men and women as teachers or the school system in this country will crumble," declared Hugh S. Magill, field secretary of the N. E. A., and former superintendent of schools in Springfield, Ill.

Dr. William Etinger, superintendent of schools in New York, favored the passage of the Smith-Tower bill as a means toward better teachers salaries.

The delegates today went on record as favoring military training in schools in connection with health education.

11 HENS IDLE; NOW LAY 221 EGGS A MONTH

Mrs. Young Almost Gave Up Raising Chickens. Then She Tried This Plan.

"When I accepted your offer and tried Don Sung, I had been getting 1 or 2 eggs every other day. The next month, using 50 cents worth of Don Sung, my 11 hens laid 221 eggs. I almost gave up raising chickens, but now I have decided to raise as many as I can."—Mrs. F. C. Young, Bellefonte, Pa. Feeds is too expensive to waste on idle hens. You can easily start your hens laying and keep them laying, even in coldest winter. To prove it, all you need do is accept our offer, as Mrs. Young did.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded. Don Sung (Chinese for ever-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your drug store or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 284 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

YOUR CATARRH MAY LEAD TO CONSUMPTION

Dangerous to Use Treatment for Only Temporary Relief.

There is a more serious stage of Catarrh than the annoyance caused by the stopped-up air passages, and other distasteful features.

The real danger comes from the tendency of the disease to continue its course downward until the lungs become affected, and then dreaded consumption is on your path.

Your own experience has taught you that the disease cannot be cured by sprays, inhalers, atomizers, jellies and other local applications.

S. S. S. has proven a most satisfactory remedy for Catarrh because it goes direct to its source. Get a bottle today, begin the only logical treatment that gives real results. For free medical advice write Medical Director, 47, Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

TEACHER SHORTAGE DRAWS ATTENTION OF CONVENTION

Cleveland, O., Feb. 25.—Attention of the 8,000 educators attending the national education association convention here was turned to the nation wide shortage today.

Signed reports from 1792 superintendents of public schools in 48 states were read showing that during the past year 140,000 quit the teaching profession for more remunerative employment.

"Wages must be made sufficient to hold competent men and women as teachers or the school system in this country will crumble," declared Hugh S. Magill, field secretary of the N. E. A., and former superintendent of schools in Springfield, Ill.

Dr. William Ettinger, superintendent of schools in New York, favored the passage of the Smith-Tower bill as a means toward better teachers salaries.

The delegates today went on record as favoring military training in schools in connection with health education.

IS FEELING LIKE OLD SELF AGAIN

Railroad Man Wasn't Exactly Sick But Felt Tired And Worn Out all the Time.

"I was in a badly run-down condition when I started taking Tanlac, but after taking only two bottles I am feeling like my old-time self again," said Albert F. Smith, 517 Elm street, Toledo, Ohio, a brakeman on the Toledo-Ohio Central Railroad, recently. Continuing Mr. Smith said:

"While I was not exactly sick, I was so badly run down for some time past that I just felt tired and worn out all the time and not like doing anything. My appetite was nothing like good as usual. I did not relish what I ate and it did not agree with me. I had no ambition and was sluggish and my work tired me so when I came in off my run on the road that I felt all fagged out and did not feel like going out of the house or doing anything but sitting down or going to bed.

"I had been reading so much in the newspapers about the good Tanlac was doing others that I decided to give it a trial, and it surely went right after my case in a hurry. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed I was getting back to my former good condition. Now my appetite has returned and I can eat anything I want and all I want without feeling any bad after effects. I am completely over that tired, worn-out feeling and come off the road after a hard day's work feeling just like I could still do another good day's work without stopping. I am gaining in weight so fast my clothes are getting too tight for me. I am going to take a few more bottles of Tanlac, just to be sure I don't have a return of my troubles. It is surely a grand medicine and I advise everybody who feels as I did to take it."

"Tanalac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill.

TESTIFY AT THE PRELIMINARY OF WHISKEY TRIAL

Sheriff Funderburg and Police Officer Day went to Dayton Wednesday, to testify at the preliminary hearing of John Bowman, charged with owning and operating an illicit still. The hearing was held before United States Commissioner Frank Howell.

The preliminary hearing of Hayes Valentine, on the same charge will be held Thursday. Deputy Sheriffs George A. Birch and George Spencer who assisted in the raid, as well as Sheriff Funderburg and Officer Day, have been summoned to testify at the Valentine hearing.

METEORS STILL ARE UNDEFEATED

St. Brigid's Meteors, still undefeated and out for the 115 to 120 pound city championship, will play the Dayton Eastwoods at the Rink Thursday evening.

The Eastwoods are highly touted having defeated the Arrows 27-17, this being the same team that the locals walloped here last week. The Meteors will present the same line-up with Purdom and Neville and forwards, Hendrickson at center and Leahy and Gallagher at guards. Teams wanting games with the Meteors should call Bell phone 519 between 5:30 and 6 o'clock.

XENIA EMERALDS OUT FOR CHAMPS

The Xenia Emeralds, a newly organized basketball quintet is now taking the floor for the city championship and is issuing a challenge to any team in the city.

The Emeralds line-up with Skelly and Pulse, the latter an all-county pick last year, at forwards, "Happy" Davis at center and Harley Hurley and Frank Leahy, guards. The team is out for games locally. Harley Hurley is captain of the quintet while Leon Skelly is manager.

But Mrs. Banfer Switched To Nerv-Worth and Quickly Found Relief

Every reader in whose system lie ailments which came in the wake of influenza should take careful notice of the following remarkable signed statement recently made at Uniontown's Nerv-Worth drug store. In the source and character Mrs. Banfer's report is a most comforting message to fellow sufferers:

Wade H. Guyton—I had a terrible case of the "flu" which left me in a very nervous and run-down condition. I was in the hands of a doctor but did not seem to respond to his treatment. I would feel a sickness in my stomach after eating. My sleep was disturbed and I did not get rest or gain strength.

I purchased a bottle of Nerv-Worth from you and took it as directed and can truthfully say that I am no longer nervous. No sickness after eating and I sleep soundly all night and have regained my health and strength. I recommend Nerv-Worth to all.

MRS. WM. BANFER, Uniontown, Pa.

Your dollar back at Sayre & Hemphill's, Xenia, if this famous family tonic does not benefit you.

Nerv-Worth does more than merely to build up the system after a flu attack. It fortifies it against such attacks.

11 HENS IDLE; NOW LAY 221 EGGS A MONTH

Mrs. Young Almost Gave Up Raising Chickens. Then She Tried this Plan.

"When I accepted your offer and tried Don Sung, I had been getting 1 or 2 eggs every other day. The next month, using 50 cents worth of Don Sung, my 11 hens laid 221 eggs. I almost gave up raising chickens, but now I have decided to raise as many as I can."—Mrs. F. C. Young, Bellefonte, Pa.

Feed is too expensive to waste on idle hens. You can easily start your hens laying and keep them laying, even in coldest winter. To prove it, all you need do is accept our offer, as Mrs. Young did.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Druggery Co., 284 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

CROCHETED COATEE IS A NEW FEATURE IN SWEATER WORLD

The newest thing in sport costumes is a silk sports skirt, a simple little blouse both in white, and then one of the new crocheted coatees of some brilliant wool. Here is one of the most novel of these new coatees. It is made in a rather simple design with long fringe over the hips and along the front and back panels. It may be had in rose, blue, green, orange, purple and other more delicate shades.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED---AND EARNED

BY JANE PHELPS

A MODERN STORY OF HOME AND BUSINESS

ROBERT'S FRIENDS TAKE A HAND

CHAPTER 61.

Robert was moody, silent and disagreeable much of the time. He hated his work, the inferior quality of the goods he was asked to sell, the small business men's method; and lastly the way he, as well as the rest of the help, was treated.

"One would think I had just commenced to work," he grumbled.

"Bunch seems to think his clerks can play bundle boy, do errands, or any other old thing!"

"Perhaps he feels he can't afford to do differently. Large oaks from little acorns grow," you know," quoted, laughing a little because Robert looked so lugubrious. But I really felt more like crying. "I suppose Calding and the other big stores had to start sometime in a small way."

"Talking that way doesn't make being treated like a lackey any easier!" Robert snapped, then begged my pardon.

"I don't know what ails me, Gerry! Honest I try to hold my temper but everything seems to rub me the wrong way. I am sorry I spoke so cross to you. You deserve better from me."

He spoke so humbly and looked so distressed that I made very light of his grumbling, and laughed at him for a silly goose to care what he did so long as he had to spend the time. "I never care what I have to do," I told him. "Madame pays me for the time I spend in the shop. And it really makes no real difference whether I trim the window or sell hats. My time is hers."

"I don't see it that way at all. I am hired to sell goods, not to play errand boy."

"But if there are no customers, and other things need to be done," "That makes no difference!" he said, so impatiently that I stopped arguing, altho I couldn't stop thinking that perhaps if Robert had less sense of his own importance, and more interest in his work, he would get along better.

Betty Weed gave another little party about this time. She said she gave it so we could all rejoice together over Robert's recovery. So many had been killed with automobiles and so many others permanently injured, that she said it was only fair to have a party for Robert.

"I knew it was only an excuse to cheer him up. I had met Frank on my way home from the shop, and had told him that Bob was depressed and blue."

"We'll have to do something to wake him up," he had replied. "You know that condition grows on a fellow if he gives way to it. And really, poor old Bob has had it pretty rough lately."

"I know it, Frank! I—for the first time I had felt an inclination to speak of Robert and his failure in business to someone besides Mary Ryan. But I caught myself just in time. There was nothing Frank could do. Why tell him?"

"What were you about to say, Gerry?"

"Oh, nothing! But Bob really needs cheering up. His accident kept him in the house so long, he isn't quite himself even yet. And then the loss of his position because of his enforced absence, the position with such a different type of man, has combined to make him unhappy."

"Was that the reason he lost his position with Calding? I didn't think they would do a thing like that. It's a rotten trick to discharge a man when he is sick."

"I felt my face flush yet I could not say anything to disabuse Frank's mind of the idea that Calding and Company had been unfair without letting him see that Robert was to blame. So I said nothing, while he continued to say untrue things about that firm. When he left me he said:

"Betty and I will get our heads together and see if we can't have some sort of a ray shindig to cheer Robert up a little. That was a low down trick that firm played on him."

Tomorrow—Invitations.

An Important Letter

CONNEAUT, OHIO:—"I have the greatest faith in Dr. Pierce's remedies because they have always given me just the relief I needed in a short time and that relief was not temporary, but permanent. My first experience with these medicines was twenty years ago when I was suffering with inward trouble and doctoring gave me little or no help. Then my doctor ordered me to take local treatments which were decidedly objectionable to me. It was then that I wrote to Doctor Pierce's Invalids' Hotel for advice and took the medicines advised, which included the 'Favorite Prescription,' and it was only a short while before I was feeling better and eventually I was cured of my trouble for I never had a recurrence of woman's weakness. I have taken 'Favorite Prescription' since, whenever I have felt the need of a special tonic, and also the 'Pleasant Pellets' when in need of a laxative, and not once have I been disappointed in the results obtained. I certainly do recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines very highly because they are so dependable and satisfactory."—MRS. PHEBE FARLIN, 404 Washington St.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can now be had in tablet form as well as liquid at most drug stores. Send to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for a ten cent trial package of tablets.

Steam this one and one-half hours. This will serve eight, and should any be left, steam the second time. Serve with any kind of pudding sauce, or milk and sugar.
You will marvel at the richness of this pudding when you stop to think that it takes no sugar, butter, lard, or shortening of any kind, and no flour.
Sugarless Ginger Cookies—One cup molasses, one-half cup boiling water, one-third cup lard, one teaspoon soda, one teaspoon each salt and cinnamon, one tablespoon ginger, one egg, one-half teaspoon allspice, one tablespoon cocoa.
Dissolve soda in a little cold water. Mix stiff with flour and roll out and bake in a hot oven. Makes over two dozen cookies.
Roll Jelly Cake—One cup sifted flour, one teaspoon baking powder, one cup soft white sugar, three eggs broken into above without beating. Bake in a thin sheet. Turn out on dry cloth; spread quickly with jelly and roll.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED---AND EARNED

A MODERN STORY OF HOME AND BUSINESS

ROBERT'S FRIENDS TAKE A HAND

CHAPTER 61.

Robert was moody, silent and disagreeable much of the time. He hated his work, the inferior quality of the goods he was asked to sell, the small business men's method; and lastly the way he, as well as the rest of the help, was treated.

"One would think I had just commenced to work," he grumbled.

"Bunch seems to think his clerks can play bundle boy, do errands, or any other old thing!"

"Perhaps he feels he can't afford to do differently. 'Large oaks from little acorns grow,' you know," quoted, laughing a little because Robert looked so lugubrious. But I really felt more like crying. "I suppose Calding and the other big stores had to start sometime in a small way."

"Talking that way doesn't make being treated like a lackey any easier!" Robert snapped, then begged my pardon.

"I don't know what ails me, Ger-ry! Honest I try to hold my temper but everything seems to rub me the wrong way. I am sorry I spoke so cross to you. You deserve better from me."

He spoke so humbly and looked so distressed that I made very light of his grouching, and laughed at him for a silly goose to care what he did so long as he had to spend the time.

"I never care what I have to do," I told him. "Madame pays me for the time I spend in the shop. And it really makes no real difference whether I trim the window or sell hats. My time is hers."

"I don't see it that way at all. I am hired to sell goods, not to play errand boy."

"But if there are no customers, and other things need to be done!"

"That makes no difference!" he said, so impatiently that I stopped arguing, altho I couldn't stop thinking that perhaps if Robert had less sense of his own importance, and more interest in his work, he would get along better.

Betty Weed gave another little party about this time. She said she gave it so we could all rejoice together over Robert's recovery. So many had been killed with automobiles and so many others permanently injured, that she said it was only fair to have a party for Robert.

I knew it was only an excuse to cheer him up. I had met Frank on my way home from the shop, and had told him that Bob was depressed and blue.

"We'll have to do something to wake him up," he had replied. "You know that condition grows on a fellow if he gives way to it. And really, poor old Bob has had it pretty rough lately."

"I know it, Frank! I"—for the first time I had felt an inclination to speak of Robert and his failure in business to someone besides Mary Ryan. But I caught myself just in time. There was nothing Frank could do. Why tell him?

"What were you about to say, Ger-ry?"

"Oh, nothing! But Bob really needs cheering up. His accident kept him in the house so long, he isn't quite himself even yet. And then the loss of his position because of his enforced absence, the position with such a different type of man, has combined to make him unhappy."

"Was that the reason he lost his position with Calding? I didn't think they would do a thing like that. It's a rotten trick to discharge a man when he is sick."

I felt my face flush yet I could not say anything to disabuse Frank's mind of the idea that Calding and Company had been unfair without letting him see that Robert was to blame. So I said nothing, while he continued to say untrue things about that firm. When he left me he said:

"Betty and I will get our heads together and see if we can't have some sort of a ray shindig to cheer Robert up a little. That was a low down trick that firm played on him."

An Important Letter

CONNEAUT, OHIO:—"I have the greatest faith in Dr. Pierce's remedies because they have always given me just the relief I needed in a short time and that relief was not temporary, but permanent. My first experience with these medicines was twenty years ago when I was suffering with inward trouble and doctoring gave me little or no help. Then my doctor ordered me to take local treatments which were decidedly objectionable to me. It was then that I wrote to Doctor Pierce's Invalids' Hotel for advice and took the medicines advised, which included the 'Favorite Prescription,' and it was only a short while before I was feeling better and eventually I was cured of my trouble for I never had a recurrence of woman's weakness. I have taken 'Favorite Prescription' since, whenever I have felt the need of a special tonic, and also the 'Pleasant Pellets' when in need of a laxative, and not once have I been disappointed in the results obtained. I certainly do recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines very highly because they are so dependable and satisfactory."—MRS. PHEBE FARLIN, 404 Washington St.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can now be had in tablet form as well as liquid at most drug stores. Send to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for a ten cent trial package of tablets.
